the appellants are enlarged on bail, there is a likelihood they tempering with the prosecution witnesses.

4. In absence of any antecedents and considering the fact that the case is triable by the Court of Learned Magistrate, there is no reason to deny bail. Hence, the Appeals are allowed.

5. Accordingly, we direct that the appellants shall be produced before the Trial Court within a maximum period of one week from today. The Trial Court shall enlarge the appellants on bail on appropriate terms and conditions. However, the Trial Court shall hear the Public Prosecutor before finalising the terms and conditions. It will be open for the Trial Court to impose appropriate stringent terms and conditions.

6. Pending applications stand disposed of.
