UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

1) In terms of the previous order dated 24.04.2026, in particular para 6 therein, Mr. Anupam Lal Das, learned senior counsel appearing along with his client-Mr. Anil Mehra (respondent No. 1), on instructions, has stated across the Bar before us that now all the disputes between the parties have been settled and no amount is payable / receivable by either of the parties. It is also stated that the liability of the GST, if any, coming in future, he will owe the responsibility thereof.

2) Mr. Dhruv Mehta, learned senior counsel appearing along with his client's representative-Mr. Sujan Kumar Ghosh, who is present in the Court, has stated that if the statement given as above is accepted by the other side, they have no objection to put a quietus to this dispute.

3) Considering the aforesaid, we dispose of the present special leave petition as per the statement given by the parties and put a quietus to the litigation.

4) Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
